DISCERN YOUR FAITH COMMITMENTS

FR. RICH
Servant Leader

We've seen many changes in our community and in our Church since we first conducted our parish renewal program last January. I've seen many signs of the Kingdom here at Newman. We welcomed 24 new Catholics into our faith family. We've made numerous physical improvements to the building to keep our space comfortable and up-to-date. And this past November, we formed a Parish Welcome Team whose members are charged with personally welcoming all new parishioners.

Our universal Church has recognized seven new saints in Heaven. We, however, are still struggling to heal the deep wounds caused by the abuse crisis and eradicate the sin which allowed such tragedy to happen. Remaining hopeful in these times is not easy; however, I believe that transformation and purification can occur.

As we begin this new year, I ask you to prayerfully consider how you can do your part. How can you awaken your heart and transform this community?

We are each called as individuals, responding as a disciple, to pray, to study, and to serve. We are also called to participate in this call communally to make Newman a force to be reckoned with on campus and in Columbia.

If you have not received your annual parish renewal information in the mail, you can find the same information online at www.comonewman.org/goodfaith or pick up a copy in the Gathering Space. This information gives you a framework to prayerfully discern your faith commitments.

As your family plans, we as a parish make plans. When each household responds to the call, we as a parish can truly transform our community. How is the Lord calling you to share your gifts of prayer, service, and treasure?

I have faith that the Holy Spirit will guide our Church toward healing and transformation. I have faith that you are called to be a part of the Spirit moving within our own community.

Imagine: what would our faith community look like if we each fully engaged in our call as disciples to accompany those around us into deeper relationship with Christ?

If you did not do so at Mass this weekend, I encourage you to complete and return your intention card to the parish or fill out the form online. This card is the avenue in which you can communicate with me and the parish about how you plan to invest in Newman's mission. The card gives information on how to share your gifts and asks for you to declare your commitment to the parish. By March, we will be able to share the parish's overall increased commitment. If you have any questions regarding this program, or how to give electronically, please contact the main office.

Thank you for your participation not only in this program, but in the life of the parish.

Fr. Rich, O.P.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

A WALK THROUGH THE CATECHISM

- What: Those versed in Catholic teaching and those who have never opened the catechism are invited to walk through the basic teachings of our faith. This spring, we will focus on spirituality and morality.
- When: Thursdays in the Disciples Room from 7-8 p.m., beginning January 24.
- Led by: Fr. Reginald

THE HOLY LAND: A [VIRTUAL] PILGRIMAGE

- What: Not everyone can physically go to the Holy Land, but this virtual pilgrimage will help us travel through the places where Jesus lived and preached. Journeying with renowned New Testament Scholar Fr. Donald Senior, C.P., will enhance our understanding and deepen our prayer.
- When: Thursdays in the Disciples Room from 10-11:30 a.m., beginning January 31.
- Led by: Sr. Karen. Please contact Sr. Karen at srkaren@comonewman.org for a schedule and study materials.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY: THE RAGGED EDGE OF NIGHT

- What: This next session of Women's Spirituality will engage The Ragged Edge of Night by Olivia Hawker. It is a deeply moving book that will challenge our notions of what it means to really live a holy life in the midst of the most trying circumstances. If you are interested, buy a copy of the book and begin to read Part 1.
- When: The same discussion is offered on Sundays from 3-4:30 p.m. and the following Monday from 10-11:30 a.m. The dates are: January 27 or 28; February 24 or 25; March 17 or 18; April 14 or 15. Discussion takes place at 1922 W. Broadway, in the lower level of Sr. Karen's home.
- Led by: Sr. Karen. Sr. Karen will send you reflection/discussion questions before each gathering.

WHY STAY CATHOLIC?

- What: This is a discussion of Michael Leach's lighthearted and amusing but profound book, Why Stay Catholic? Unexpected Answers to a Life-Changing Question. This book won first place, Popular Presentation of the Catholic Faith, and third place in the Spirituality category for the 2012 Catholic Press Association book awards. "The book resonates with the practical, the joyous, the spirit-lifting, and the reality of what it means to live as a Catholic." Purchase the book and read the pages 1-26 before the first meeting.
- When: Tuesdays in the Disciples Room from 10:30-11:30 a.m., March 5 through April 9.
- Led by: Dr. Jill Raitt

AWAKEN OUR HEARTS TRANSFORM OUR COMMUNITY

This weekend is "Discernment Weekend" for the annual offertory renewal process. We encourage all parishioners to complete and turn in your intention cards to the parish — either through the offertory baskets or by mailing it directly to Newman. The intention card contains information on sharing your prayerful intentions with the parish for the next year. It also gives you a space to request additional information, such as on how to give electronically and giving through non-traditional giving methods (such as appreciated securities or giving through your IRA required distribution). If you have any questions regarding this program, please contact JoAnn Shull in the parish office.

You can also find more information on our website as well as complete your intention card at comonewman.org/goodfaith.

LECTOR TRAINING

Are you interested in serving at the Mass in an intentional way? Lectors proclaim the Word of God during Mass. The next Lector Training will be on Tuesday, January 29. Please RSVP on the sign ups page on the website (above). Contact Trent Rash at trent@comonewman.org with questions.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BRUNCH

The Newman Center Council of the Knights of Columbus will be hosting a fundraising brunch on Sunday, February 3 after the 9 and 11 a.m. Masses in the MPR.
