WITNESS BLESSINGS

FR. RICH
Servant Leader

Words have power. Ritual actions have power. When combined, words that color ritual action potentially have a profound impact on those who witness the moment. The words of our heroes and scoundrels, saints and sinners, athletes and politicians, musicians and poets; they ring through the years and the ages, still full of their original power and passion. The rituals that capture our attention — funerals, weddings, baptisms, graduations, inaugural events, marches powered by the passion of those in the streets — their ability to engage us, motivate us, stop us, and bring us to our feet or our knees is frequently palpable.

This time of year, we are frequently treated to a plethora of blessings; for graduates, for first communicants, for mothers. During each of the liturgical seasons, celebrants have options for solemn blessings to close the Eucharistic celebration (ritual).

“When combined, words that color ritual action potentially have a profound impact on those who witness the moment.” (I’ve always wanted to be quoted) That sentence is accurate, if ... If those who hear and witness to the event are present to that particular moment, not just present, but attentive and open to the language and the ritual. A profound impact presumes openness by those upon whom the blessing is conferred; openness to God’s grace and love entering into hearts and souls hungry for God’s presence.

The challenge, frequently, is to not grow complacent or jaded in the witnessing and accepting of the words and ritual. Too often, the “AMEN!” that is meant to follow the completion of the ritual is pro forma and automatic, simply one more response in a ritual that we hope is soon over.

Our participation in the rituals and blessings that punctuate, enhance, and energize our lives should be intentional and attentive. Driven by our happiness at being with our faith community; being happy that we are nurtured and enlivened by one another’s presence.

So I leave you with this blessing:

Go forth into the world in peace;
be of good courage;
hold fast that which is good;
render to no one evil for evil;
strengthen the fainthearted;
support the weak;
help the afflicted;
honor everyone;
love and serve the Lord,
rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always. Amen!

Cf. 1 Thessalonians 5:13-22

Fr. Rich, O.P.

DIOCESE SECOND COLLECTION

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

Next week, we will have a second collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) and The Catholic University of America. This is an annual collection throughout the Diocese of Jefferson City. The CCC connects people with Christ, here and around the world in developing countries, through the internet, television, radio, and print media. Fifty percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the gospel message! The Catholic University is unique among universities in the United States. Established by the Vatican and the U.S. bishops in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. Your support will enable Catholic University to help prepare the next generation of leadership for our Church and nation. We appreciate your generous gift to these two causes.

A member of Feeding America, the Food Bank is able to work with manufacturers, wholesalers, processors, growers, retailers and restaurants to secure donations and food at reduced prices. They depend on volunteer groups, such as ours, to repackage this food for the recipients. Thanks so much to our volunteers in April. We repackaged frozen chicken. Our usual night is the second Monday of each month. The next Newman Night at the Food Bank is Monday, May 14 from 6-8 p.m. The Food Bank asks our volunteers to be at least 9 years old and not wear open-toed shoes as a safety concern. If you're a high school or college student who needs volunteer hours, please come! Bring a friend or family member, as well, if you'd like. No experience is necessary! Please arrive at 6 p.m. The Food Bank's address is 2101 Vandiver Drive. If you have questions, please call Gloria Young at 573-673-3070.

COFFEE WITH JESUS

RFB Presents COFFEE WITH JESUS Dropping In Unannounced 	 You said, "Behold! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me."	 Too bad so many people just look through the peephole or open the door a crack to say, "Come back later. I'm busy."	 In fairness, Jesus, you're out there calling, banging on the door, dropping in unannounced, inviting yourself to dinner.	 I brought the food, Kevin.
