WALKING WITH THE APOSTLES

THERESA NGUYEN
Communications Coord.

"They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers."

This verse, Acts 2:42, is where we drew inspiration from when we began the monthly ministry at Newman with the same name. Throughout Lent 2019, we had the desire to offer you something more — something that would bring us together as a community of faith and deepen our individual faith lives. Our aim was to bring this verse to life: we had dinner together, we had a talk on a topic of faith, we had praise and worship, and we had Eucharistic Adoration and Reconciliation. This one verse encapsulated what we desired our community to reflect and what we hoped to achieve through this monthly night of praise and worship.

Our community looks very different now than it did a year ago, and not because of any ministry we had here at Newman. Our community now is an empty church, a multitude of videos, and innumerable prayers. At first glance, it seems like we are far from the reality that the apostles lived in. Instead of enjoying communal life, we are in quarantine, isolated from our family, our friends, and our faith community. But we are, in some ways, walking with the apostles as they began to form what community and the Church looked like for them in their time.

"Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles." There is no doubt that this is a challenging time. In the midst of this, God remains present in our everyday lives. A new sense of wonder comes from the things we did not think were possible before. Technology allows for my Bible study to continue to meet, for Mass — anywhere from Newman to the Vatican — to be brought into my home, for the glorious choir of alumni, residents, and students to sing Gloria together on Easter Sunday. I am in awe of the continued generosity of our parishioners: of the commitment you keep to staying connected and ministering to others, such as serving through Loaves and Fishes and the Food Bank, albeit in new ways.

"All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need." Now more than ever we are united in a common sacrifice. We have set aside our usual way of life to support those who are at risk of the virus, healthcare workers, and all essential employees.

"Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes." Our homes have once again become our primary sacred space. The obligation to attend Sunday Masses has been lifted, but the devotion of our parishioners remains the same: to come together — though virtually — to praise God. Almost 300 families are live with us on Sundays, and that number does not include those who are livestreaming other Masses, those who watch our Masses later in the day, and those who are making time for private prayer in place of Mass.

When we meet the apostles in the beginning of the Gospel, they are locked in a house and living in fear. Jesus, resurrected, comes to them and offers them peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus comes to us, in our homes, today to offer us that same peace, mercy, and love.

The apostles didn't have a handbook to tell them how to live out their mission of sharing the glory of God. It was new for them just as this reality is new for us. They relied on the strength of their faith, on their community, and on his Holy Spirit. We, too, can rely on those same gifts that Jesus has given us as we continue sharing the glory of God in our lives today.

THE BISHOP'S EASTER MESSAGE

He is risen, Alleluia! Just as he said, Alleluia!

As we begin this new season of Easter, our spirits are lifted and renewed with Jesus' promise to bring us back together again. His death and resurrection changed the world forever, making all things new.

During the passion of Jesus, his band of disciples were scandalized by his suffering. They were afraid and they scattered.

Therefore, when Jesus rose from the dead, his first concern was to gather his disciples together once again in Galilee. That is what is so significant in the message he had Mary Magdalen and the other Mary relay to the other disciples: "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me." The presence of the risen Jesus brought the band of disciples back together again.

Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, we have had to become more isolated from one another:

Some of us are grieving the death of loved ones without the full benefit of our funeral rites and without the consolation that comes from the presence of our dear family and friends in our time of mourning.

Others are struggling to regain their health in hospitals and nursing homes, and again, are without the presence of family and friends to comfort them.

And we all suffer from the social distancing and isolation that come with the "shelter in place" order as our new normal. It is as though we have been scattered from one another. And yet, the suffering and sacrifices of so many people during this pandemic is not in vain.

The women and men in today's Gospel have an urgency — they are running to find the Lord. We, too, must have a sense of urgency in finding God's salvation by how we respond to the pandemic.

I am inspired by the acts of charity and mercy of so many people: the farmers, grocery store workers and restaurant personnel; truck drivers and delivery people; teachers; health care professionals; public officials; volunteers who are young and old — the list goes on and on.

Together, each of us has an important role to play to stop the spread of the coronavirus and to encourage the spread of God's mercy. And with our tenacious Easter faith, we look forward to the day when we can all go to Church together again. What a great day that will be!

We need everyone to participate in a renewal of faith as we come out on the other side of this crisis. I pray we can discern together, from our response to the pandemic, on how we can be stewards of God's generosity, make our homes even more holy, and make our parishes truly centers of charity and mercy.

We are witnesses of all God has done, and we must proclaim, in our words and in our deeds, that he has made all things new again! I wish you and your families a happy Easter Season, a season of life and love, a season of the Holy Spirit.

Most Rev. W. Shawn McKnight, S.T.D.
Bishop of Jefferson City

WE PRAY

for our Newman Community

For those who are sick, especially Dennis Hensley, Jim Charlton, and Cy and Mary Harbourt.

For our beloved dead, especially Susan Marie Katz and Christa Katz. Eternal rest grant unto them and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Pope Francis' April Prayer Intention: We pray that those suffering from addiction may be helped and accompanied.

Bishop McKnight's April Prayer Intention: For a stronger sense of the mission of the Church, especially among our youth and young adults, in this time of pandemic and in our discernment of a new pastoral plan.

Call the Parish Office to request prayers or assistance if you are homebound. Names will be listed in the bulletin for two weeks.

Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for Protection from the Coronavirus

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, we entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross, you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. Patroness of the Diocese of Jefferson City, you know what we need. We are certain of the power of your intercession, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who taught us to "love one another, as I have loved you" took our sufferings upon Himself and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Bring under your mantle of protection all who provide care for the sick and minister to their needs, as your Son implores us to do for one another.

V. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

R. Do not despise our pleas and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING (ACTS 2:42-47)

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 118)

R. Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the house of Israel say,
"His mercy endures forever."
Let the house of Aaron say,
"His mercy endures forever."
Let those who fear the LORD say,
"His mercy endures forever."

I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the LORD helped me.
My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.
The joyful shout of victory in the tents of the just:

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.
This is the day the LORD has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it.

SECOND READING (1 PT 1:3-9)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

GOSPEL (JOHN 20:19-31)

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Act of Spiritual Communion prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

DIOCESAN INFIRM PRIEST FUND COLLECTION

Typically during Easter Sunday, there is a second collection for the Diocesan Infirm Priest Fund. This collection maintains a reserve fund for out-of-the ordinary health needs of diocesan priests not covered by health insurance. Please consider mailing in the special envelope you received for this collection. Thank you for your generosity!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FOOD BANK COLLECTION

In February, you responded to our Food for Families collection drive by donating $2,400 to support the Food Bank for Central and Northeast Missouri. After applying matches from the council and the national office, we donated $3,400 to help provide food to the needy.

In this uncertain time, it is even more vital that we support the needy in our community. Therefore, the council has again stepped up to challenge our community. The Newman Center Knights of Columbus will match, dollar for dollar, the first $1,150 donated to the Food Bank for their COVID19 response efforts. The funding for this match comes from your support of our fundraisers throughout the year, such as our Football Season Tailgates and our annual (except this year) fish fry. Visit www.comonewman.org/sunday-news to donate. Thank you for your support in the past (to provide this match) and now!

2020 U.S. CENSUS QUICK FACTS

It is important that all Missourians are counted in the census so that our state may have accurate representation in Congress and adequate funding for local hospitals, first responders, and critical social programs. Your responses will be kept anonymous. The Missouri Catholic Conference has put together a one-page fact sheet on the 2020 U.S. Census that you can find at mocatholic.org. For even more information on what to expect and how to respond, visit www.2020census.gov.

11TH ANNUAL TOLTON GOLF CLASSIC — NEW DATE

Registration is open for the 11th Annual Tolton Catholic Golf Classic to be held Monday, June 15, at Country Club of Missouri. Registration opens at 11 a.m., with a 12:30 p.m. shotgun start. Lunch will be provided before the tournament. Register your team at www.toltoncatholic.org. Sponsorships are also available! Proceeds benefit the Tolton Catholic Tuition Assistance Fund. This is an especially fun way to support Catholic education, so we hope to see you there! Questions? Contact lsasser@toltoncatholic.org.

NEWMAN VOLUNTEER CORPS

PERSONAL CARE ITEM COLLECTION

Newman Volunteer Corps will not be hosting a collection during the month of April. Thank you to all who donated to Love INC in March!

HELP MAKE US A CENTER OF CHARITY AND MERCY

Newman is working to connect with and help parishioners who are in self-quarantine and in need of resources such as groceries, medicine, or just someone to check in on them. If you are willing to be part of this team and help us, please contact Susan Devaney at devaney.susan@gmail.com.

SISTER PARISH LENTEN PROJECT

In 2013, the Newman Center entered in a sistering relationship with La Inmaculada Concepcion Parish and communities in La Libertad, El Salvador. Through this relationship, both communities commit to supporting and nurturing friendship, spiritual companionship, visits, and advocating sustainable solutions to poverty.

This year, funds collected through the Lenten Project will support the empowerment of women and youth through organic agricultural training, establishing micro-loan groups, and supporting youth training in dance, theater, band, and leadership. Our goal is $9,000. To learn more and to donate, visit www.comonewman.org/lent.

FORCOLUMBIA: CANCELED

The main volunteer event will not take place on April 25. The large-scale volunteer effort to love and serve our city is not going to be implemented. ForColumbia has organized ways to continue to do our small part in order to let others know that we care.

- Continue to pray for the medical personnel in our city who are already seeing COVID-19 in our hospitals and are putting themselves at risk for the good of others. Pray for their protection, for wisdom to know how to do their jobs with excellence, and for rest. Many doctors and nurses are working longer hours, and are having trouble sleeping.
- Sign up to be part of their Prayer Team. (visit www.forcolumbia.com/prayer)
- Continue to follow health protocols and social distancing.
- Continue to check in on the neighbors near you.

CEP & EDGE

CEP & EDGE WILL NOT MEET IN APRIL & MAY

Classes/EDGE Nights are finished for the school year to allow our volunteers the freedom to plan as needed for jobs, school, and family. We do hope to have an end of the year party at regular session times at some point.

FIRST COMMUNION POSTPONED

Bishop McKnight has asked that all sacrament celebrations be postponed until at least June 14. We'll be in touch via email when we're able to plan further. If you are not getting emails, contact emily.shull@comonewman.org.

EDGE ONLINE BIBLE STUDY & PARENTS BIBLE STUDY

We're starting an online bible study for middle school students Thursdays at 3:30 p.m. and working on one for parents, too. If you're interest in more details, contact emily.shull@comonewman.org.

KIDS' CORNER

For Kids: Have you ever been wrong about something like Thomas? Can you tell God and ask for help?

For Parents: Thomas wanted to see Jesus but then he responded with faith right away. How can you as a family watch for signs of God each day? Will you recognize God?

EPHESIANS

VIRTUAL EPHESIANS 3

The Ephesian 3s team is excited to announce that E3 will continue in a virtual format for the remainder of the semester — via Instagram Live! Follow Newman's account (@comonewman) and join us on Wednesdays at 9 p.m.

SENIOR SEND OFF UPDATES

Seniors — we didn't want your senior send off to be this way. But we are working to make your senior year — however different it might be — meaningful for you. With Mizzou postponing graduation, we will reevaluate scheduling a Baccalaureate Mass around the new graduation date. Delivery of graduation cords and other senior gifts will be announced once we know more information about what the University will be doing. Until then, we ask that you take some time to do two things virtually:

1. Complete your exit survey. This will not only give you a chance to reflect upon your college experience but will also help Campus Ministry to prepare for future graduating classes. Your input is so important to our discernment process.
2. After you complete the survey, sign up for a virtual exit interview with a member of the Campus Ministry Team. During the interview, we want to pray with you, hear your story, and learn more about your experiences at Newman.

Check your email or visit the website to complete these tasks.

CAMPUS MINISTRY VIRTUAL OFFICE HOURS

Your Campus Ministers are available for virtual office hours. We invite you to reach out to us with your needs, concerns, joys, and triumphs as you navigate the remainder of the semester. Office Hours are as follows:
