RECEIVE THE PRESENCE OF THE SAVIOR

FR. RICH
Servant Leader

Sometimes, throughout the Easter season, it is challenging to manage the story telling. There is not really a sequential laying out of events, and today's Gospel is a wonderful example. Today, we revisit the third day after the Crucifixion, as we join two travelers en route to Emmaus. We are drawn back into the anguish of Jesus' followers as they try to come to terms with what they believe to be unfulfilled promises.

Despite Jesus joining them on their journey, they are so self-engaged that they fail to recognize the Master. Even as he joins them on their journey, sharing Scripture with them, they still persist in their blindness. It is not until Jesus blesses and breaks the bread that their eyes, hearts, and minds receive the presence of their savior — at which time he vanishes.

As is often true in our own lives, we become so self-engaged that we fail to perceive the important events, people, or circumstances around us. This week our community was planning on celebrating The Venerable Father Augustus Tolton. That celebration has been postponed indefinitely, but there is no reason why we can't deepen our knowledge of this saintly man: tolton.archchicago.org is the website connected to the Archdiocese of Chicago. Check it out.

The American bishops have developed a great website that offers daily readings for us to enter into for our prayer and study. They also offer a great variety of resources that assist and encourage us to become more familiar with our faith and the issues that challenge us.

It is not just those who are internet savvy that have options. Cracking open the Bible that has been sitting on our shelves has always been an option, never more than now. There has been a concerted effort to broaden programming, both network, cable and radio, designed to entertain and educate us. The telephone has become an important anchor in our days, as we reach out to reassure our families and friends that we are managing and that they too are safe. For the moment, it is a new reality, and our faith can play an important role in our living through it.

On the 22nd of April, we celebrated the 50th Earth day, and while our climates remain threatened, the sky is clearer, our seas and waterways cleaner and quieter, our cities breathing cleaner than has been the case in recent history. Is this perhaps an opportunity to glimpse what our future could be like post pandemic, if we chose to make it so?

If we return to Scripture, our Jewish brothers and sisters were offered any number of "wake up" calls as Yahweh reminded them of the covenants they entered into throughout history. If you read the Jewish testament, they will become quite evident. Even our own Christian scriptures, both in our Gospels and Letters, offer them to an attentive reader.

I am a firm believer that we always have choices, that our free will can be the greatest gift our Creator gave us, or the heaviest burden. How we approach it determines which. My news feeds are replete with stories of individuals who have discovered hidden "treasures" as they have begun to clean out spaces long ignored; with stories of imaginative responses to quarantine and social distancing; with accounts of the many small acts of kindness and support that used to be lost in the noise of the "important" stories of violence, hatred and abuse, murder and mayhem. Those challenges still exist, always will, but the focus on the kinder, gentler, braver, compassionate side of our humanity is hopeful.

So, father pastor, one might ask, "What does this all mean?" In closing, I offer a thought that I'm sharing with our graduates at the Baccalaureate Mass this weekend. "Stay strong, be bold and gentle, hold on to your faith and God's love. And know that Newman will always be your home and our community always praying for you!"

Peace be with you! Do not be afraid!

Fr. Rich, O.P.

WE PRAY

for our Newman Community

For those who are sick, especially Jim Charlton, and Cy and Mary Harbourn.

For our beloved dead, especially Christa Katz. Eternal rest grant unto them and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Pope Francis' April Prayer Intention: We pray that those suffering from addiction may be helped and accompanied.

Bishop McKnight's April Prayer Intention: For a stronger sense of the mission of the Church, especially among our youth and young adults, in this time of pandemic and in our discernment of a new pastoral plan.

Call the Parish Office to request prayers or assistance if you are homebound. Names will be listed in the bulletin for two weeks.

Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for Protection from the Coronavirus

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, we entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross, you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. Patroness of the Diocese of Jefferson City, you know what we need. We are certain of the power of your intercession, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who taught us to "love one another, as I have loved you" took our sufferings upon Himself and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Bring under your mantle of protection all who provide care for the sick and minister to their needs, as your Son implores us to do for one another.

V. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

R. Do not despise our pleas and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING (ACTS 2:14, 22-33)

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him:

*I saw the Lord ever before me,
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.
Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted;
my flesh, too, will dwell in hope,
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption.
You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence.*

"My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 16)

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;
I say to the LORD, "My Lord are you."
O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.

I bless the LORD who counsels me;
even in the night my heart exhorts me.
I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices,
my body, too, abides in confidence;
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

You will show me the path to life,
abounding joy in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

SECOND READING (1 PT 1:17-21)

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb.

He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

GOSPEL (LK 24:13-35)

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

Prayer for a Communion of Desire

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, renew my heart now with the power of Your Spirit. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Unite me more closely to Your Body, the Church. And never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

CONTINUING YOUR SUNDAY TITHE

In the Bishop's instructions to the faithful of the diocese, he has asked us to continue our Sunday offertory tithe by postal mail or electronic means. If you are already giving through EFT (electronic funds transfer) or through your credit/debit card online, your gift will continue as you have previously set it up. You can learn more about these options or set up an electronic way of giving on our website at www.comonewman.org/parish/support/offertory. If you have any questions, please contact Angie Claas at angie@comonewman.org. Thank you for continued commitment to the parish!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FOOD BANK COLLECTION

In February, you responded to our Food for Families collection drive by donating $2,400 to support the Food Bank for Central and Northeast Missouri. After applying matches from the council and the national office, we donated $3,400 to help provide food to the needy.

In this uncertain time, it is even more vital that we support the needy in our community. Therefore, the council has again stepped up to challenge our community. The Newman Center Knights of Columbus will match, dollar for dollar, the first $1,150 donated to the Food Bank for their COVID19 response efforts. The funding for this match comes from your support of our fundraisers throughout the year, such as our Football Season Tailgates and our annual (except this year) fish fry. Visit www.comonewman.org/sunday-news to donate. Thank you for your support in the past (to provide this match) and now!
