INSTRUCTIONS ON ATTENDING PUBLIC MASS AT NEWMAN

The St. Thomas More Newman Center has created the following instructions to attend public Mass in accordance with requirements set by the Diocese of Jefferson City and the City of Columbia. These instructions have been created to keep everyone safe and healthy and to allow as many of our parishioners to celebrate Mass within the requirements. These instructions will be under evaluation and are subject to change throughout the month.

Although public Masses are resuming, please note that Bishop McKnight has dispensed the obligation to attend Sunday Mass for all the faithful in the diocese through June 30, 2020. We will continue to livestream all Masses on our Facebook page.

Those who are symptomatic or who have been exposed to another with the virus within 14 days are not permitted to enter the church, in accordance with national, state, and local health directives. Those who are at risk because of an underlying health issue or who are over 60 are strongly encouraged, for their health, to avoid the risk of attending public Mass.

➤ Visit www.comonewman.org/public-health to read these instructions online, sign up to attend Mass, and view our list of spiritual resources.

About Mass at Newman

- There will be one Sunday Mass at 11 a.m. Daily Mass will continue at Noon.
- All attendees are required to sign up to attend Mass. Those who have not signed up will not be permitted to enter the church.
- Children under the age of 10 may not attend Mass at this time.
- The chairs in the Chapel will be in groups of four (4). Each unit of four will hold one household. Your household will be assigned a unit (or units) when entering the church.
- Chairs in the Chapel and additional high contact areas (door handles, bathrooms, etc.) will be cleaned after each celebration of the Mass.

Before Attending Mass

- All attendees are required to wear a mask at all times, except for the brief moment of receiving Holy Communion. Those who are not wearing a mask will not be permitted to enter the church. Masks will not be available at the parish.
- All attendees are required to maintain the social distancing standard of six (6) feet at all times, except for the brief moment of receiving Holy Communion.
- All attendees are asked to check their temperature, use the bathroom, and drink water at home before coming to church.
- All attendees are asked to follow the instructions listed here and any additional instructions of the staff while in the vicinity of the church.

Signing up for Mass

- You may sign up for a maximum of one (1) Sunday Mass per month and a maximum of two (2) daily Masses per week.
- Access the sign ups on our website by clicking the "Attend Mass" button on the homepage, or visit www.comonewman.org/parish-sign-ups. If you have trouble accessing the sign up, please email Theresa Nguyen at theresa@comonewman.org or call the parish office.

- The deadline to sign up for each Mass is 9 a.m. that day or when church seating is full, whichever comes first.

Attending Mass

- Entrance into the church will be at two locations for Sunday Mass: one set of Gathering Space doors and the north Emergency Exit door.
 - Entrance into the church for daily Mass will be the Gathering Space doors.
- Exit and entrance doors to the Chapel to use the bathroom during Mass will be marked.
- The procedure for receiving Holy Communion is as follows:
 - All attendees will stay in their unit and the Eucharistic Minister will come to each unit.
 - During this time, Holy Communion will only be distributed in the hand in keeping with the advice of state health officials.
 - When the Eucharistic Minister approaches each unit, the communicant will present one hand resting on the palm of the other. The Eucharistic Minister will place the Eucharist in the communicant's hands and the communicant will respond "Amen" with their mask on. After the Eucharistic Minister has stepped aside, the communicant can then reverently place the Eucharist in his or her mouth and replace their mask.
- Attendees may remain in the Chapel to pray for a short time after Mass has ended.

CONTINUED PROCEDURES

LIVESTREAM MASS

We will continue to livestream daily Mass and the 11 a.m. Sunday Mass on our Facebook page, @comonewman. You can view the livestream even if you do not have access to Facebook. The livestream will begin 15 minutes prior to the Mass time, and the video will be available to view after the Mass is over.

➤ Visit www.comonewman.org/view-newmans-livestream-mass to watch our livestream Masses.

BUILDING HOURS

The building hours will continue as: Monday through Saturday from 8-10:30 a.m. and 2-5 p.m. and on Sundays from 2-5 p.m. Reconciliation will be available on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 4-4:30 p.m.

Jesus is in the Tabernacle in the main Chapel, and you are welcome to pray there while the building is open. Please be mindful of social distancing and having less than 10 people in the Chapel at any time. Please enter through the side door on Turner Avenue. The parish office will stay closed, as well as the classrooms upstairs and the student lounge. The staff will continue to regularly check phones and emails.

WE PRAY

for our Newman Community

For those who are sick.

For our beloved dead. Eternal rest grant unto them and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Pope Francis' May Prayer Intention: We pray that deacons, faithful in their service to the Word and the poor, may be an invigorating symbol for the entire Church.

Bishop McKnight's May Prayer Intention: As we honor the Mother of our Lord as the "Queen of May," may there be a greater respect and appreciation for all women on earth who nourish us in mind, body and soul.

Call the Parish Office to request prayers or assistance if you are homebound. Names will be listed in the bulletin for two weeks.

Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for Protection from the Coronavirus

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, we entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross, you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. Patroness of the Diocese of Jefferson City, you know what we need. We are certain of the power of your intercession, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who taught us to "love one another, as I have loved you" took our sufferings upon Himself and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Bring under your mantle of protection all who provide care for the sick and minister to their needs, as your Son implores us to do for one another.

V. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

R. Do not despise our pleas and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING (ACTS 6:1-7)

As the number of disciples continued to grow, the Hellenists complained against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, "It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." The proposal was acceptable to the whole community, so they chose Stephen, a man filled with faith and the Holy Spirit, also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicholas of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these men to the apostles who prayed and laid hands on them. The word of God continued to spread, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly; even a large group of priests were becoming obedient to the faith.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 33)

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Exult, you just, in the LORD;
praise from the upright is fitting.
Give thanks to the LORD on the harp;
with the ten-stringed lyre chant his praises.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine.

SECOND READING (1 PT 2:4-9)

Beloved: Come to him, a living stone, rejected by human beings but chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it says in Scripture:

*Behold, I am laying a stone in Zion,
a cornerstone, chosen and precious,
and whoever believes in it shall not be put to shame.*

Therefore, its value is for you who have faith, but for those without faith:

*The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and
A stone that will make people stumble, and a rock that will make them fall.*

They stumble by disobeying the word, as is their destiny.

You are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises" of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

GOSPEL (JN 14:1-12)

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way." Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." Philip said to him, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works themselves. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father."

Prayer for a Communion of Desire

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, renew my heart now with the power of Your Spirit. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Unite me more closely to Your Body, the Church. And never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

CONTINUING YOUR SUNDAY TITHE

In the Bishop's instructions to the faithful of the diocese, he has asked us to continue our Sunday offertory tithe by postal mail or electronic means. If you are already giving through EFT (electronic funds transfer) or through your credit/debit card online, your gift will continue as you have previously set it up. Thank you for your commitment to the parish through this giving option. If you are accustomed to giving to the offertory through cash or your envelopes, please consider continuing your gift in one of the following ways:

- Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT)
- Credit/Debit Card or Bank Account through online giving
- Venmo — a PayPal app
- Mail Your Gift through USPS

You can learn more about these options or set up an electronic way of giving on our website at www.comonewman.org/parish/support/offertory. If you have any questions, please contact Angie Claas at angie@comonewman.org.

NEWMAN NEWS

FOR THOSE IN QUARANTINE

If you are self-quarantined due to age or health and need someone to check on you every few days via phone, the Long Term Care/Homebound Ministry team will help you. If you need an essential item such as groceries or medications, let us know. We will try to identify a resource to help you. Contact the parish office at (573) 449-5424 or email Janet Kelly at reception@comonewman.org.

EVENT CANCELLATIONS

Apart from Masses, all in-person events will continue to be canceled through May 31.

COMMUNICATION FROM NEWMAN

During this time, the bulletin will continue to be online only. Our primary mode of communication to you will be the website, weekly emails (typically in your inbox on Mondays), and social media. If you are not receiving emails from Newman and would like to, please contact Theresa Nguyen at theresa@comonewman.org.

NEWMAN VOLUNTEER CORPS

EARTH DAY PRAYER WALK

Last month, we were able to celebrate the 50th anniversary of Earth Day and the 5th anniversary of Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si. We invite you to continue living out these principles of sustainability and care for creation during this time of spring. Emma Heienickle, our Service & Social Justice Intern, created a prayer walk in hopes you can take a step back from technology and take a step into the fresh air God created for us. Emma wrote the reflection and many of the prayers were found through the Climate Catholic Conference's website. Download the Prayer Walk on our website at www.comonewman.org/service-social-justice.

COMO CRISIS SHELTER

The Gail Plemmons Memorial Car Camp and Crisis Triage Center is hosting the CoMo Crisis Shelter, which is providing safe parking for those who are living in their cars during this time. This center includes bathrooms and handwashing stations. Please share this information if you know someone in need. Visit www.comocrisissshelter.com for volunteer and donation information.

EXECUTION DATE SET IN MISSOURI

The state of Missouri has set an execution date of May 19 for Walter Barton, who was convicted for killing Gladys Kuehler in 1991. While the Missouri Supreme Court affirmed Mr. Barton's conviction and death sentence, the three dissenting Missouri Supreme Court Justices stated that the evidence against Mr. Barton was "not overwhelming" and was insufficient to warrant the death penalty.

The state of Missouri has executed 89 persons since the reinstatement of the death penalty. The most recent was Russell Bucklew in October 2019. Many states are halting scheduled executions during the coronavirus pandemic, and the governor hasn't yet indicated as to whether he will go forward in Mr. Barton's case. The MCC will be sending a clemency petition to the governor asking him to commute Mr. Barton's sentence to life without parole. Sign a petition to ask the governor to grant clemency here: <http://chnng.it/VZ9xSvks>.

VOLUNTEER FROM HOME FOR THE FOOD BANK

The Food Bank and Central Pantry have hired employees to fill in the roles that volunteers would typically complete. The Food Bank is no longer accepting volunteers at this time.

Here are some ways you can help from home:

1. Veterans Letters: Letters or drawings for our veterans for inclusion in VIP packs.
2. VIP Pack Items: Knitting hats or scarves for us to include in winter VIP packs.
3. Letters for Seniors: Letters or drawing for our seniors for inclusion in CSFP boxes. You can also send a letter to local senior living facilities in a time when they cannot have visitors, these letter could go a long way for lifting their spirits!
4. Advocacy Superstars: Join us on social media and advocate for The Food Bank by sharing information, posts and encouraging others to like us on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram. You can also follow Central Pantry on Facebook. Share information on our work is a great way to help, but if you want to take it a step forward, start your own virtual fundraising drive!
5. Profile Updates: Help us update our volunteer system by logging in and updating your profile with the most current information. If you have questions, please give us a call!
6. Virtual Volunteering: The link below has a fantastic assortment of virtual volunteer opportunities for the whole family! www.pointsoflight.org/virtual-volunteering-opportunities

KIDS SUMMER PROGRAMS

We are still evaluating what programs we'll be able to offer for kids this summer, but we'll contact families with updates as soon as possible.

KIDS' CORNER

For Kids: Who needs help? Ask for God's help and know that he cares.

For Parents: Jesus tells us not to be troubled, not because fear is wrong but because his Father has a plan for peace, joy, and freedom. This week pray together for the trust to know his words are true.

TOLTON CATHOLIC ANNOUNCES NEW LEADER

Bishop W. Shawn McKnight announced the appointment of Dr. Daniel Everett as president/principal of Fr. Augustine Tolton Regional Catholic High School, effective July 1. Dr. Everett holds a doctorate in organizational leadership from Pepperdine University and a master's degree in philosophy from Loyola Marymount University. He has served in a wide variety of roles in Catholic schools, most recently as interim head of school for St. Anne School in Laguna Niguel, California. He has also been the vice principal of curriculum and innovation and the director of service at JSerra Catholic High School in San Juan Capistrano, California; and he has taught English, math, philosophy and theology in Catholic schools in southern California. He and his family currently live in Orange County, California, which comprises the Diocese of Orange. Please join us in welcoming Dr. Everett to the Catholic community in the Diocese of Jefferson City!
