THE NATURE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

DR. JILL RAITT
Newman Parishioner

An old adage says that everything is received according to the mode (nature) of the receiver. For example when rain falls on a rock, it runs off without affecting the rock other than to make it wet; the hard nature of the stone makes it impermeable. But when rain falls on a newly planted field, it softens and penetrates the soil and stimulates the seeds to begin to grow; the nature of soil is absorbent and the nature of a seed is to respond to moisture. So what has this to do with Pentecost?

The nature of the Holy Spirit is Love and the nature of love is to do all the good possible for the beloved. The only catch is that the beloved must be open to the love just as cultivated land is open to receive the sower's seeds, the sun and rain.

Ah, but we are not passive soil; we have minds and wills, you rightly object. Yes, and that is why we prepare to receive the gifts of Pentecost and then to cooperate with those graces, to say "Yes" to the Divine Giver. So the actions at Pentecost are first to pray to be open to receive the gifts that the Holy Spirit pours out on us, thanking God and asking the Holy Spirit to make them active in us for our sanctification and apostolic work.

Better still, because we are members of the one Body of Christ, the Church, we can help each other to receive the seven-fold gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. These gifts indicate the ways in which God acts in us and through us to build up and strengthen the Body of Christ on earth. So we do as Christ did, we use our whole human nature, mind, will, body, and soul as conscious, willing members of our local church community, enriched by the gifts of the Holy Spirit that inspire us to offer, so far as we are able, our talents and our treasure to our parish, to our local community, and other charitable groups, but most effectively, by attending Mass.

For a time, this church was closed; now it is open but under mandated restrictions put in place for our safety. We must sign up to attend only one Sunday Mass each month and indicate the days on which we wish to attend daily Mass. Because we are created as social beings, the social distancing restrictions that we all must observe have made me painfully aware of how much I miss gathering with others for Sunday Mass. Today is Pentecost, but I "spent" my August Sunday on the Feast of the Ascension, so I will be attending Mass via my computer, restricted to virtual communion.

Virtual attendance via computer sites are better than nothing — we can receive Christ spiritually through our desire and prayer. I do all that, you say; how else can I receive and respond to the Holy Spirit? Did I mention personal, private prayer? Liturgical prayer with our parish community is powerful, even when we are distracted, because our intention in showing up at Mass is to honor God, to receive our Eucharistic Lord, and by so doing, to grow spiritually. Is that enough? You know it isn't! Every day the Holy Spirit showers us with gifts; every day we need to spend some time alone with God. And we need to pray to be open to the Holy Spirit's gifts, to accept them, and to act on them. Come Holy Spirit!

Dr. Jill Raitt

WE PRAY

for our Newman Community

For those who are sick.

For our beloved dead. Eternal rest grant unto them and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Pope Francis' June Prayer Intention: We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

Bishop McKnight's June Prayer Intention: May the Sacred Heart of Jesus transform all men, especially fathers, to trust in the model of St. Joseph to instill in them courageous leadership and devotion for those whom God has placed in their care.

Call the Parish Office to request prayers or assistance if you are homebound. Names will be listed in the bulletin for two weeks.

Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for Protection from the Coronavirus

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, we entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross, you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. Patroness of the Diocese of Jefferson City, you know what we need. We are certain of the power of your intercession, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who taught us to "love one another, as I have loved you" took our sufferings upon Himself and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Bring under your mantle of protection all who provide care for the sick and minister to their needs, as your Son implores us to do for one another.

V. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God.

R. Do not despise our pleas and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

COVID-19 Spiritual Adoption

COVID-19: A Prayer of Solidarity

Especially, Lord, we lift up _____. May s(he) feel Your power of healing through the care of doctors and nurses. Take away the fear, anxiety, and feelings of isolation as they receive treatment or under quarantine. Give them a sense of purpose in pursuing health and protecting others from exposure to the disease. Protect their families and friends and bring peace to all who love them.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING (ACTS 2:1-11)

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (PS 104)

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O Lord!

the earth is full of your creatures;

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;

may the LORD be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme;

I will be glad in the LORD.

If you take away their breath, they perish and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

SECOND READING (1 COR 12:3-7, 12-13)

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

GOSPEL (JN 20:19-23)

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again,

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Prayer for a Communion of Desire

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, renew my heart now with the power of Your Spirit. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Unite me more closely to Your Body, the Church. And never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

FOR THOSE IN QUARANTINE

If you are self-quarantined due to age or health and need someone to check on you every few days via phone, the Long Term Care/Homebound Ministry team will help you. If you need an essential item such as groceries or medications, let us know. We will try to identify a resource to help you. ## INTERFAITH GARDEN

The Interfaith Garden is a joint effort between Newman Center and Congregation Beth Shalom to grow vegetables using organic practices for the Food Pantry to take good care of God's creation. We started our 11th year of gardening in early April with new guidelines in light of the pandemic. We no longer have group workdays. Instead, we ask volunteers to sign up for an hour or two when there are no more than 4 other people around (when face masks and social distancing would be required). Right now, we need people to weed, to spread mulch on the pathways, and turn our compost piles. You can work any day of the week except between Friday and Saturday sunsets, but you have to let us know which day and time you will be there and at least 1 day before coming. We welcome anyone (or family units) who wants to help, with or without gardening experience.

The garden plot is at Congregation Beth Shalom, 500 W. Green Meadows Rd. Since the buildings are locked, bathrooms are not available. If possible, bring your own gloves and tools. If not, they will be provided. There will be diluted bleach solution and paper towels available in the storage tub close to the garden gate to sanitize any shared tools, the gate lock, and storage tub lid you touch after gardening. Or you can bring your own sanitizer. Please contact Lily Chan at lilyhchan@gmail.com (573/289-3792) or Susan DeMian at susandemian@yahoo.com (573/289-3180) and we will give you more details.

TOTUS TUUS FOR MIDDLE SCHOOLERS: JUNE 15-19

Four young adult missionaries will join us to create an afternoon program of games, prayer, and reflection just for our middle schoolers. This program will be in the chapel from 2:30-4:30 p.m., June 15-19, and will follow regular Mass policies for social distancing and safety. Middle school students must preregister on the Parish Sign Ups page. For more information, contact emily.shull@comonewman.org. The High School Program will be 6:30-8:30 p.m. the same week.

KIDS' CORNER

For Kids: The Holy Spirit filled the disciples with joy and energy. How can you help others to be joyful?

For Parents: This is not a time when many of us feel on fire. Pray as a family for the Holy Spirit to be with you, helping you to spread love, joy, and care. Ask for the Holy Spirit to help you to be patient and understanding in the face of uncertainty.

Circle the two identical doves!
