lethargic and apathetic, and detached. Getting sufficient physical rest only helps so much. We need to be rejuvenated, refreshed, and reenergized in other ways. If we are psychologically exhausted, we need to understand what is draining our emotions and taxing our relationships. If we are spiritually tired, we need to find the necessary “shot in the arm” to put us back in touch with God. Unfortunately, exhaustion is seldom limited to just one part of who we are. When we lack energy and zeal it is usually the case that everything suffers. We not only are affected physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. In short, when we run out of gas the engine stops.

And yet, our Lord’s directive is clear, “Be vigilant at all times.” Even Jesus knew what “the anxieties of daily life” can do to us. One day pours into another and time quickly flies by. Any one of us can take a moment and reflect on how many wonderful, creative opportunities we miss because there is always so much “stuff” to do and so little time to do it. Usually these are missed moments of love, and if we are missing love encounters we are also missing God. Sleepwalking through life, we check the boxes next to our list of “must and have to dos” and justify it all by convincing ourselves that tomorrow is another day and there’ll be more time. It may surprise us, but tomorrow is here, and time is running out. While we may like to believe that we have an “eternity” of time to do all those things that require the focus, energy, and desire we do not currently have, we don’t. We’re on a limited ride and time is short.

Jesus is also clear on another point. “That day [will] catch you by surprise like a trap.” If we are going to be judged on love and so easily justify not having all that much time to do so, then it seems we must shift focus a bit. St. Teresa of Calcutta tells us, “We desire to be able to welcome Jesus at Christmas-time, not in a cold manger of our heart, but in a heart full of love and humility, a heart so pure, so immaculate, so warm with love for one another.” Getting to this place doesn’t “just happen.” It requires vigilance and discipline both with a knowledge of what is really of importance and what really needs to be the focus of our energy and time. Pray, starting now and not tomorrow, that we can stay alert, be strengthened in our faith, and prepared for whatever will come. Don’t miss another opportunity to love.

Staying awake can often be a challenge, especially when we are exhausted. Life’s demands have a way of zapping every last bit of energy out of us. When we are tired it affects us not only physically, but psychologically and spiritually as well. All of our senses are dulled and diminished. We can overlook details, become disinterested,

The Usual Way- Please take a tag off of the tree and return your unwrapped gift next to the tree in the Gathering Space (with tag attached) by Sunday, December 5th.

All gifts, no matter the method you give, must be at The Newman Center by Sunday, December 5th. Thank you!

Join us for Life Night tonight (11/28)! We hope you enjoyed your Thanksgiving - we're so grateful for each of our teens, their families, and the parishes who support us in so many ways. Tonight will continue our Mood series with a talk on sadness and what it means and how we can express it and deal with it. We're so excited for community, prayer and games! As always, we'll be starting the night with dinner. We meet at the Activity Building at Sacred Heart most Sundays from 6:45-8:30 p.m. All high school students are welcome. Next week (12/5) will be the last night of our Mood series, so don't miss out!

#GivingTuesday is the biggest philanthropic day of the year! We really want to make a big impact by reaching Newman's two goals - funding SEEK @ Newman and funding the social justice endowment. As a student, you can help by making calls to people you know and/or Newman donors asking them to give on this special giving day.

KIDS CORNER

For Kids: In this season of Advent we ask God to come to us in a deeper way at Christmas. Decide today how your family will prepare.

For Parents: In a season of business, Advent is an invitation to find God in the small quiet moments. Turn the lights down, light the first candle of your wreath together and remember that there is no darkness where God's beautiful light cannot shine through.

PUZZLE

Help this child find the path to God.

SERVICE AND JUSTICE

FOOD PANTRY COLLECTION

We are collecting non-perishable items for our local Food Bank of Central & Northeast Missouri! You can drop off your donations in the tall bin in the church entryway of our parish. Last month, 136 pounds of food were taken over. Thank you for your generosity!

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Do you have a desire to serve, but don't have a lot of time to dedicate to ministry? Do you want to bring Jesus (literally!) to those who can't come to him? We are looking for new ministers who would be willing to visit and bring communion to the homebound. Your mission, should you choose to accept, would involve visiting one (or as many as you feel called to serve) homebound individual. These parishioners may be in their homes or in a nursing home and unable to attend Mass, either permanently or temporarily, due to things such as recent surgery. If you are interested, please reach out to rebecca@comonewman.org for more information.

AFGHAN REFUGEE SPONSORSHIP GIVING TREE

Newman has answered the call for help to sponsor Afghan refugees. This sponsorship includes financial responsibility for food, housing, furnishings, clothing, personal effects and transportation. One way we have opted to collect funds for this sponsorship is via gift cards and cash donations. The volunteer group will receive notice of assignment approximately 48 hours prior to the family's arrival. Here are the ways you can help:

- Take an envelope from the tree labeled Afghan Refugee Sponsorship Giving Tree. Purchase the gift card noted on the envelope and return it to the mailbox next to the tree.
- Give online at www.comonewman.org (click "Give" and select "Afghan Refugee Fund")

Given the short time between notice of arrival and arrival, we ask you to consider assisting as quickly as possible.

PRAYER VIGIL REGARDING SCOTUS HEARING

The Supreme Court is set to hear oral arguments on Dec. 1 in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, a case directly challenging Roe v. Wade. Mike and Kathy Forck are organizing a prayer event on Nov. 30 from 8 am to 5 pm on the sidewalk in front of the Missouri Supreme Court, 207 W High St. in Jefferson City. For more information, contact Mrs. Forck at kathythebo@hotmail.com.

SERVICE AND JUSTICE MAILING LIST

There is an email list for Service and Justice opportunities through Newman. If you are interested in doing more service or learning about opportunities, please contact Emily at nvc@comonewman.org

WE PRAY

"It is a holy and wholesome thing to pray for the living and the dead." 2 Maccabees 12:46

Pope Francis' December Prayer Intention: Let us pray for the catechists, summoned to announce the Word of God: may they be its witnesses, with courage and creativity and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Bishop McKnight's December Prayer Intention: For our children and youth: that the example of parents and other adults of the parish may foster a sense of openness to the Holy Spirit in their lives.

Submit a prayer request by filling out a prayer card (found at the entrances to the church) and placing it in the offertory basket or going to our website and click the button under "Needing Prayers?" near the bottom of our home page.

HOSPITALIZED OR IN NEED OF PRAYER?

If you or a loved one becomes hospitalized, please notify the Parish Office to inquire about possible services. Due to HIPAA regulations, hospitals cannot provide information for patients. A Catholic hospital chaplain is also available by request at our local hospitals.

Prayer requests have the option of being listed in the bulletin for two weeks, or you may choose to be shared only with the prayer ministry group. You may also indicate if you want the request to be part of the prayers of the church at Mass.

If you desire to be part of the Newman Prayer Ministry Group, please email Sandy Dirks at sandydirks@gmail.com to be added to the group.

Prayer for a Communion of Desire

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, renew my heart now with the power of Your Spirit. I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Unite me more closely to Your Body, the Church. And never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
