

Game Day Football Parking Coordinator

Earn up to $50/hour depending on your experience!

Are you a natural leader with a confident, welcoming presence? Join the team at St. John Henry Newman! We are looking for a Football Parking Game Day Coordinator to expertly manage our parking operations during Mizzou home football games.

In this seasonal role, you will be the face of the Newman staff in the lot, ensuring a safe, organized, and positive experience for fans, volunteers, and staff. Whether you are looking for an engaging way to spend your fall Saturdays or a chance to develop your leadership and operations skills, this role offers flexibility in managing clients and earning potential of $35 - $50/hour, scaling directly with your level of expertise!

What You'll Do:

- Lead the Game Day Experience: Be the primary on-site staff representative, executing pre-game plans and upholding lot rules with confidence and fairness.
- Empower Volunteers: Train, supervise, and track hours for student volunteers to help them reach their fundraising goals.
- Manage Operations: Oversee lot set-up and clean-up, and coordinate with vendors, towing services, and local authorities (e.g., MUPD) when necessary.
- Keep Things Running Smoothly: Make real-time decisions in nuanced situations, maintain equipment, and send a quick post-game report to the Director of Campus Ministry.

What You Bring to the Table:

- At least 22 years of age.
- Strong communication, assessment, and decision-making skills.
- Ability to stand/walk for extended periods, work in various weather conditions, and occasionally lift up to 10 pounds.
- Basic tech skills (email, group messaging, and online forms).
- Commitment: Length of the Mizzou football season (Saturdays/Game Days). Note: The role may be split between two people!
- Pay: $35-$50/hour, based on experience and expertise.
- Reports To: Director of Campus Ministry.
